

RUBBER COMPANY HOLDS MEETING

Increase of Stock to Develop Tanjong Olak Plantation Considered.

The annual meeting of Tanjong Olak rubber plantation, in the Malaysian Islands, is being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the offices of the Waterhouse company, and the annual meeting of Pahang, the other Malay plantation in which local capital is largely interested, will follow.

Plans and figures that point to a bright and profitable future for these plantations and substantial returns to their stockholders are contained in the reports of Frank G. Wallace, the Tanjong Olak manager; Andrew Grant, the district surgeon; Fred T. P. Waterhouse, treasurer, and the Waterhouse company, agents. In his report Manager Wallace notes that tapping was started a year earlier than had been expected and all was reported in good condition. In summarizing up the conditions, the report of the agents says:

"The manager's estimates during past years have not been exceeded to any extent, as you will find by referring to previous reports. It has, however, made it necessary for the company to raise more funds to complete the development, and as favorable terms can not be made through leasing bonds or borrowing money, the directors have called an extraordinary general meeting of the company for the purpose of considering a resolution to increase the capital stock of the company."

"While there are some reasons against the increasing of the capital, it will put the company in a position to be on a dividend-paying basis, without and indebtedness to provide for, fully a year sooner than it would otherwise."

"We are at the present time getting enough rubber from the area that is in bearing to pay for the upkeep of this area and make a profit besides, so that if funds are provided for taking care of the unproductive area, we would have an available cash profit at the end of this year."

Tapping Many Trees.
"On December 31, 1910, we were tapping approximately 7000 trees, which is equivalent to tapping every tree on an area of 35 acres planted 200 trees per acre, and by July of 1911 we will be tapping at least 10,000 trees."

"The manager also estimated in his 1909 report that the trees should produce 11-2 oz. of dry rubber per month for each tree tapped. During 1910, if every tree that was in tapping had been tapped every day, we should, under this estimate, have produced 1360 lbs. of rubber. The actual production was 1325 lbs., which, when we take into consideration the difficulties that arise in organizing a tapping force from green coolies, and the number of times we consequently were unable to tap all the trees, we would find that the estimate of 11-2 oz. per tree per month, instead of falling short less than 2-2 per cent., would have been exceeded."

"The total amount received from the sale of the 1325 lbs. of rubber was $1245 U. S. gold, plus $109, or $1454, the $109 being amount received, when the rubber was sold in February, in excess of the inventoried value of December 31, 1910. The cost of tapping, collecting, factory and shipping charges was $497."

1911 Crop.
"The output for the first quarter of 1911 was 1715 lbs. of dry rubber. As the manager has made no estimate in his report, we will supply the following as a conservative estimate:

"Second quarter—Minimum, 2000 lbs.; maximum, 2650 lbs.
"Third quarter—Minimum, 2672 lbs.; maximum, 5000 lbs.
"Fourth quarter—Minimum, 7110 lbs.; maximum, 19,000 lbs.
"Total—Minimum, 14,500 lbs.; maximum, 18,768 lbs."

DAMON CONTEST TO TAKE PLACE TOMORROW

The Damon rhetorical prize contest will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Charles R. Bishop Hall, Oahu College. The contestants are advanced students from the oral expression department, which is in charge of Miss Alida W. Brooks. The program will be varied with some musical numbers. The award of the judges will not be made until commencement night. All who are interested are invited to attend.

THAT HOLSTEIN CHARGE.

A note from Acting-Superintendent of Public Works Tucker to The Midweek says: "In the absence of the Commissioner, I thank you on his behalf for your kind offer and can only say that it is my belief that he is acting fairly and squarely in all matters pertaining to the Department of Public Works; and while there may be differences as to methods, yet I think it is unfair and unjust that he should be criticized without being heard in his own behalf. I think that time will right all these matters and that Marston Campbell will have nothing to be ashamed of."—Kohala Midget.

FREIGHT BOAT FOR SPORTS

Honolulu sporting fraternity, and they are legion, want to be present and figure in the carnival of events to be held on Maui Isle July 4, and just here's the rub.

If local sportsmen will agree to content itself with passage by one of the local freight boats, there is still a ray of hope held out that a Maui excursion for the Fourth of July may be arranged.

July 4 in this year of our Lord 1911 falls on Tuesday. That is the regular sailing date of the Inter-Island flagship Mauna Kea. For the first time in a number of years, the local steamship company has thus far failed to come forward with the announcement of a popular-price excursion.

And this is why. President and General Manager Kennedy declares that he would gladly accommodate the intending visitors to Maui had he the available tonnage at his disposal. The Inter-Island company is bound to your Uncle Samuel by ties that lead to legal complications in the failure to carry mails between Honolulu and Island ports. It is no easy thing to defer the sailing of a steamer that is engaged on a regular mail route.

The steamer Mauna Kea must depart for her regular ports on scheduled time. Should there be a delay, the whole mail schedule throughout Maui and Hawaii would be seriously deranged. The same reason applies to the steamer Kinau, the Hall or any other vessel now employed on a regular run to Island ports and carrying United States mails.

Manager Kennedy states that he will gladly do what he can towards placing one of the smaller freight boats at the disposal of the excursionists on the natal day, but he is unwilling that he himself or the Inter-Island company be subjected to censure or complaint over a lack of cabin accommodation that would be found on such vessels.

A vessel of the size of the Likilike has carried one hundred and fifty excursionists under the auspices of the Public Service Association. The trip to Maui by this vessel was made by the party without any great discomfort. It might be done again, but the Inter-Island does not wish to assume the responsibility in the matter of attempting a first-class service as might be given in steamers such as the Mauna Kea.

So, after all, it's up to the sports.

WITNESS ACCUSES U. S. OFFICIALS

asked Rawlins, "that you did not bring the opium ashore, but that someone else did?"

This was admitted by Howard, who declared that he wanted to get into open court before telling the truth.

"Have you not, as a matter of fact," asked Rawlins, "told Mr. Stackable that you did not bring the opium ashore from the Manchuria, but that Snyder did?"

Howard then appealed to Judge Clemens, stating that he wished to make a statement before answering the question. Judge Clemens stated that he had a right to refuse to answer, and then Howard said:

"It does not make any difference whether I answer yes or no to that question—they will get me for perjury. After forty days have expired Stackable tells me that I made a statement before himself and a witness declaring Snyder to be the man. I never made such a statement, but Stackable can come into court with his witness against me. If I answer yes they can still work up a perjury charge through Breckons."

Howard insisted that he had been threatened, but Attorney Frank Thompson, for Snyder, declared the court was not engaged in trying Howard or the government, but was solely concerned with Snyder, and objected to Rawlins' questions as to the threats made.

QUIT IT

Quit preaching 'round that "advertising pays." As well proclaim that nights succeed the days: As well pronounce, with grave, informing air, That two times one must surely make a pair: As well call up a friend upon the 'phone And break the news to him, in serious tone, That if tomorrow isn't cold or wet Some warm, dry weather we will likely get!

Quit squawking 'round, "It pays to advertise." Would you consider anybody wise Who rang your bell at night and called you out To tell you that a tadpole's not a trout? "Of course," someone may urge, "the statement's true!" 'Tis also fact that unveiled skies are blue. But telling trite things isn't always wise: We all admit "it pays." Just advertise!

RECREATIONS

GREAT SENSATIONAL
ILLUSIONS TONIGHT

The past five performances of the Great Jansen Company have been attended by record-breaking houses. Every night and at the matinee Saturday the theater was packed to its utmost capacity. Every seat was sold long before the performances started, and standing room was at a premium. Jansen has made the biggest hit of any magician that has ever been seen in Honolulu, and his wonderful illusions are the talk of the town. Tonight Jansen promises a very fine program. The feature illusions are "The Autoist Surprise" and "The Prisoner's Escape," which are by far the most daring and sensational deception ever attempted. Police and scientists alike have been baffled by this great surprise, introducing Miss Edna Herr, the foremost lady escape expert. Nothing can hold her. She laughs at locksmiths. The other new illusions are "The Great Dress Box Mystery," "Circus Day," "The Annihilation of Pigeons" and "The Chest of Wonders." De Hollis and Valora, the comedy jugglers. Miss Daisy Thorpe, the prima donna, will be heard in new operatic selections and popular songs, and by special request will render "Glow-worm." Nelson Story, the instrumentalist, has new selections on his xylophone. Asra, the mystery of the air, which has created a sensation here, will be put on again tonight on account of the numerous requests. The Jansen show will play here all this week, leaving for Yokohama June 12, having already secured passage on the Mongolia.

SAVOY'S "INNOVATION" CONTINUES

The management was pleased with the patronage of the Savoy the past week when moving pictures only were shown, and will continue the "innovation" for this week. There will be no vaudeville at all, just motion pictures, and these will all be selected with feature films introduced. Last week's baseball film was exceedingly popular, and a new one will be introduced tonight which is expected to be equally popular.

BIJOU'S FINE PROGRAM

With Gilson and Tolan, the splendid singing and dancing team which made such a big hit at the Empire the past week opening tonight at the Bijou, the big theatre will have a very strong card to offer its patrons. Gilson and Tolan present high-class entertainments, but they are such as to please gallery and orchestra audiences. "Bobby" Pulliam the singer who has made good at both the Savoy and Bijou, will render entirely new songs tonight and change again on Thursday evening. All new photo plays tonight.

EMPIRE'S NEW VOCALIST

Marjorie Linbrooke arrived on the Honolulu Saturday and will make her debut tonight at the Empire. She is a vocalist with an exceedingly flexible and melodious voice, one that thrills and is popular with all classes of audiences, as attested to splendid press notices given her during her coast appearances. Alfreda Van Ness, who has been at the Empire for the past two weeks, has been a favorite with the patrons and whether she sings operatic or popular selections her voice fits them all.

HILO BREAKWATER WORK TO START AGAIN

James L. Young, of the Lord-Young Engineering Company, returned Saturday from Hilo where the company is building the second section of the big Hilo breakwater. He says that the slight delay caused by the failure of the first quarry site to provide suitable rock will be soon overcome, and that the company is making arrangements now to go ahead with the work. Work on the first quarry was stopped last Saturday and there will be a short period with little doing but the company will go ahead with negotiations for rock from a fresh source.

BAND CONCERT.

The Hawaiian band will resume its Monday evening concerts at Emma Square tonight at 7:30 o'clock and the following program will be rendered: Introduction—Queen Kaplani. Berger Overture—The Vikings Hall Intermezzo—Kaiulani Berger Selection—La Traviata Verdi Vocal—Hawaiian Songs, ar. by Berger Selection—H. M. S. Pinafore (by request) Sullivan Fantasia—In Switzerland Hume Finale—King Kalakaua Berger The Star Spangled Banner.

Two beautifully dressed women got on the car at Fifty-fifth Street and entered into a discussion of their household cares and worries. Finally when the subject of jellies was reached, one said to the other: "Yes, we tried some crab-apples this year, but the stuff wouldn't jelly, and we had to give it to the Salvation Army."—Life.

ON INACTION POLICY

President Will Calmly Recite Killing of Americans In Message to Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—Despite the battle that raged all day in James and the death of three Americans on the northern side of the Rio Grande, President Taft will stand firmly by his announced purpose not to take action without the complete authorization of Congress.

It has been anticipated that such tragedies as that of today would happen and the administration is doing everything possible to keep Americans from the vicinity of action.

The news of the fatalities tonight,
therefore, does not come as a surprise, although it was received with deep regret and will at least result in further representations to the Mexican government similar to those that were dispatches when the residents of Douglas were shot.

A continuation of such incidents also will probably result in the transmission to Congress by the President of a message, calmly reciting all the facts but making no recommendations.

The situation is one of extreme delicacy, as was explained by a high official of the administration tonight. President Taft does not want to intervene, inasmuch as he realizes that intervention means war of a peculiarly devastating kind.

Neither does the Democratic leadership of the House want intervention.
It is pointed out that intervention, because of the loss of a half dozen American lives, might entail the loss ultimately of hundreds of lives not only of Americans now resident in Mexico, but of many soldiers who might be sent down to restore order.

On the other hand, it is becoming more apparent every day that the Mexican government is no longer able to cope with the situation and the insurrectos are without definite leadership.

Meanwhile disorder and anarchy are spreading and there are the gravest of reasons for fearing that tonight's news, a repetition of previous tragedies of the kind, is merely a forerunner of similar tragedies to come.

Representative Mondell offered a woman suffrage amendment in the House.
